

LEEDS METROPOLITAN UNIVERSITY

VALUING HERITAGE - A ONE DAY SEMINAR

9 MARCH 2012, PRIOR'S HALL, DURHAM

CELEBRATING 25 YEARS OF DURHAM'S INSCRIPTION AS A WORLD HERITAGE SITE

This seminar investigates the various ways in which communities engage with World Heritage, and will be of interest to academics, planners, tourism professionals and others involved in promoting, protecting and celebrating tangible and intangible heritage.

PROGRAMME

09.30 Registration & Refreshments

10.00 Welcome, opening remarks. Canon Rosalind Brown, Chair, Durham World Heritage Committee

10.05 Durham WHS – Introduction. Seif EL-Rashidi, Durham World Heritage Site Co-ordinator

10.25 Doing inclusive heritage: reviewing Impact and Public Engagement. Dr Divya Tolia-Kelly Department of Geography, University of Durham

10.45 Valuing heritage - between the local and the global, including questions. Dr John Schofield, Director, Centre for Applied Heritage Studies, University of York

11.20 Refreshments

11.40 Outstanding Universal Value and the new UK tentative list. Professor Mike Robinson, University of Birmingham and Director, Ironbridge Institute

12.05 How temporary residents value WHS a case study of Durham students. Dr Elizabeth Carnegie, University of Sheffield Management School

12.30 Communities and World Heritage – a case study of the Darjeeling Himalayan Railway, India. Jane Brantom, Heritage Consultant

12.50 Concluding Remarks. Dr Simon Woodward, Senior Research Fellow, Leeds Metropolitan University

13.00 Lunch

14.00 Guided tour of the WHS (optional) Seif EL-Rashidi, Durham World Heritage Site Co-ordinator

15.30 Close

SEMINAR PRICES

Half-day delegates    £20.00 (excluding lunch & tour)
Student delegates    £10.00 (excluding lunch & tour, proof of study required)
Lunch & guided tour    £10.00

All enquiries to: Dr Simon C Woodward, email: s.c.woodward@leedsmet.ac.uk tel: 0113 812 8516

Note: all proceeds from the seminar will be used to support improvements to Durham World Heritage Site.

LEEDS METROPOLITAN UNIVERSITY

International Centre for Research in Events, Tourism and Hospitality

DURHAM
World Heritage Site

Durham
University

DURHAM CATHEDRAL
THE SHRINE OF ST CUTHBERT