The Bund

- Shanghai Postal Museum

The Shanghai Post Office Museum is a large landmark building that was built in 1924 with an interesting mix of European styles of architecture.

- ROCKBUND

ROCKBUND is a collection of historic buildings located in the former European concession, just to the north of the world-famous Bund in central Shanghai.

- Shanghai Jiushi Art Museum

Opened in 2018, this museum is housed on the sixth floor of Jardine Matheson Building on the bund, a six-story listed national heritage site at Bund 27 that has been standing for almost a century.

- Custom House

The Custom House is an eight-story building on the Bund, Shanghai. Built in 1927, the building remains a customs house today.

- Peace Hotel

The Peace Hotel is a hotel on The Bund in Shanghai, China, which overlooks the surrounding areas. The hotel has two different buildings. The Sassoon House, originally housed the Cathay Hotel and is today the Fairmont Peace Hotel run by Fairmont Hotels and Resorts of Canada.

- The Bund-City Hall Plaza

The new Bund City Hall Plaza, located in the Bund area of central Shanghai, is the result of the refurbishment, and extension of the existing Shanghai Municipal Council (SMC) Building. The SMC building has been a political symbol since its completion in 1922, initially as the headquarters of the Shanghai Municipal Council of the International Settlement and later the Shanghai Municipal Government.
